

 ITPC @
  IAS 2025
13-17 July
ROADMAP

TUESDAY 15 JULY

PARTNER SESSION

10h45-11h45 | Auditorium

OAB01 Oral Abstract Session

ART Strategies: Systematic review and meta-analysis of the efficiency of intermittent antiretroviral therapy dosing: a crisis response to the sudden cuts in USAID and PEPFAR funding

Presenter: Cassandra Fairhead

12h15-13h15 | MH3

SAT23 Satellite Session

From freeze to forward: Ensuring HIV commodity access and service delivery in a changing funding landscape

Moderator: Solange Baptiste

13h30-14h45 | Auditorium

SS01 Special Session

Confronting the Storm: Strategies for Sustaining the global HIV response amid funding cuts and political shifts/The Future of the HIV Response

Panellist: Solange Baptiste

18h00-19h30 | MH3

SAT28 Satellite Session

The role of AI in HIV vaccine research and development

Moderator: Solange Baptiste

WEDNESDAY 16 JULY

15h00-16h00 | MH2

SY10 Symposium:

Advancing HIV Monitoring: Community Leadership, Big Data Science and Systems Integration

Presenter: Solange Baptiste

THURSDAY 17 JULY

10h45-11h45 | MH2

OAE0502 Oral Abstract Session

Nothing about us without us: Strengthening the HIV Response through Community Led Monitoring

Presenter: David Black Kamkwamba

PARTNER SESSION

13h45-14h45 | MH2

SY21 Symposium

Are integration and equity at odds?

Presenter: Jean Berchmans

 ITPC @
 IAS 2025
13–17 July
E-POSTERS

Applying Community-Led Monitoring to Community Engagement: A Person-Centered Approach to Improving HIV Service Delivery and Quality of Care Across 21 African Countries

Track: D – Community-engaged/participatory social-science based interventions

Poster no: EP0649

Compulsory vs. voluntary licensing: good for the people or to the market?

Track: E4 – Global and National financing, economic evaluation and sustainability

Poster no: EP0954

Democratizing Data: Life Mapping as a Tool for Community-Led Insights in Malawi and South Africa

Track: E9 – Innovations in data collection, monitoring and evaluation

Poster no: EP1077

Using Sub-National Community-led Monitoring Data to Enhance Gender and Population Equity in HIV Testing in Malawi and South Africa

Track: E9 – Innovations in data collection, monitoring and evaluation

Poster no: EP1081